

Talk about your favorite part.
What makes it your favorite?

Retell the beginning, middle, and end of the story.

Make a connection. How does that connection help you?

Talk about the characters. What do they do? How do they feel?

Talk about the funniest part of the story. What did the author or illustrator do to make it funny?

Find the word wall words in the book.

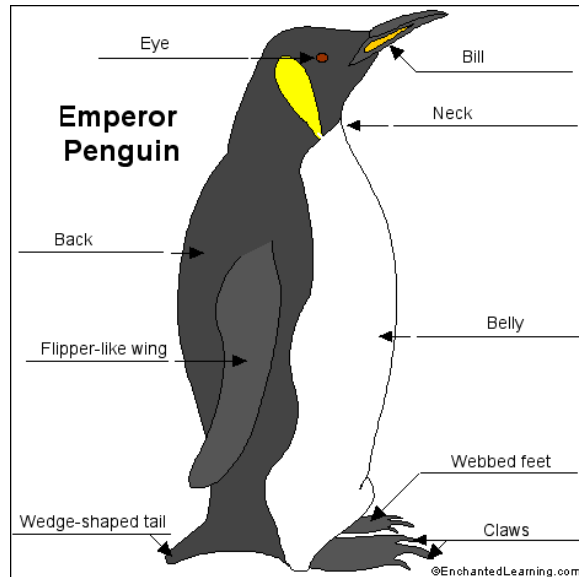

How did you solve tricky words?

Did you read around the word? Did you use the picture?
Did you look for a part you know? Did you find it in the room? Did you read all the way through the word?

Talk about some facts you learned in this book.

Talk about the non-fiction features in this book.

Talk about the main character. How did he/she change from the beginning to the end?

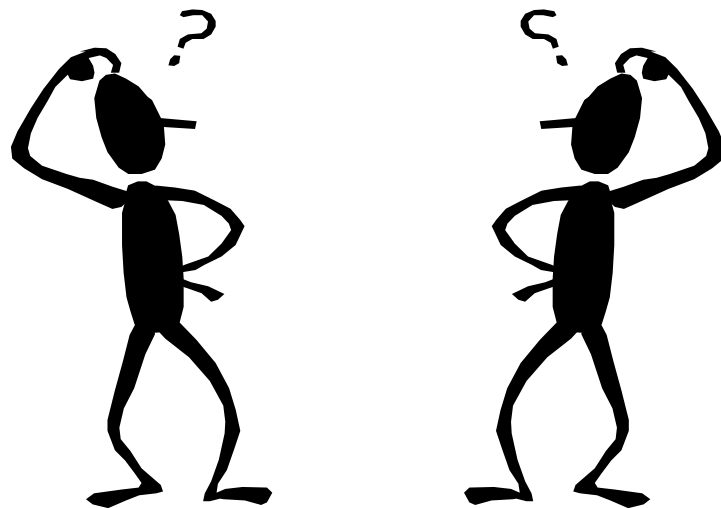

Is this book fiction or nonfiction? How can you tell?

Talk about the lesson in this book. What do you think the author is trying to teach you?

Talk about the questions you had before, during, and after reading. Were they answered?

Talk about the problem in the book. How do you know that was the problem?